

Please be aware!

The Police have made us aware of suspicious incidents that have occurred on Dean Road, Scarborough in mid to late May at around 0740 hours where two girls meet up to walk to Graham School together.

On the first occasion, a male has appeared to be taking photos of the school-girls. A female was standing next to the male.

On the second occasion a dark green car pulled up, a male and female got out and the male put his hand on one girls shoulder and said "Hi". The male and female then ran off, leaving their car running and back door open. The school-girls walked away.

Male, described as 35years old, average build, white, 6ft tall, no hair, hoody grey, jeans blue,

Female, described as 30 years old, average build, white, 5ft tall, brown blonde arm length hair, rainbow hoody, jeans.

The Police investigation is ongoing. If any of your children have encountered a similar experience then please report this via 101.
