Harvest Festival assemblies

We are having our Harvest Festival in school on Wednesday 3rd November 2021.

Unfortunately, due to Covid, we are not able to invite parents into school to join us again this year. We will be having a collection for the Rainbow Centre Food Bank. Please send any donations of suitable items (dried or tinned food or suitable toiletries) on Monday 1st or Tuesday 2nd November.

Many Thanks for your support.

Remembrance Day—Thursday 11th November

All the children will be making poppies this year and we will then be creating a Field of Remembrance at the front of the school in time for the 11th of November. We will be having Remembrance Assemblies and will be observing a minutes silence at 11:00am. The British Legion have sent poppies into school, these will be available for the children for a small donation. Look out for the poppy sellers after half term.
